SHOWER THOUGHTS

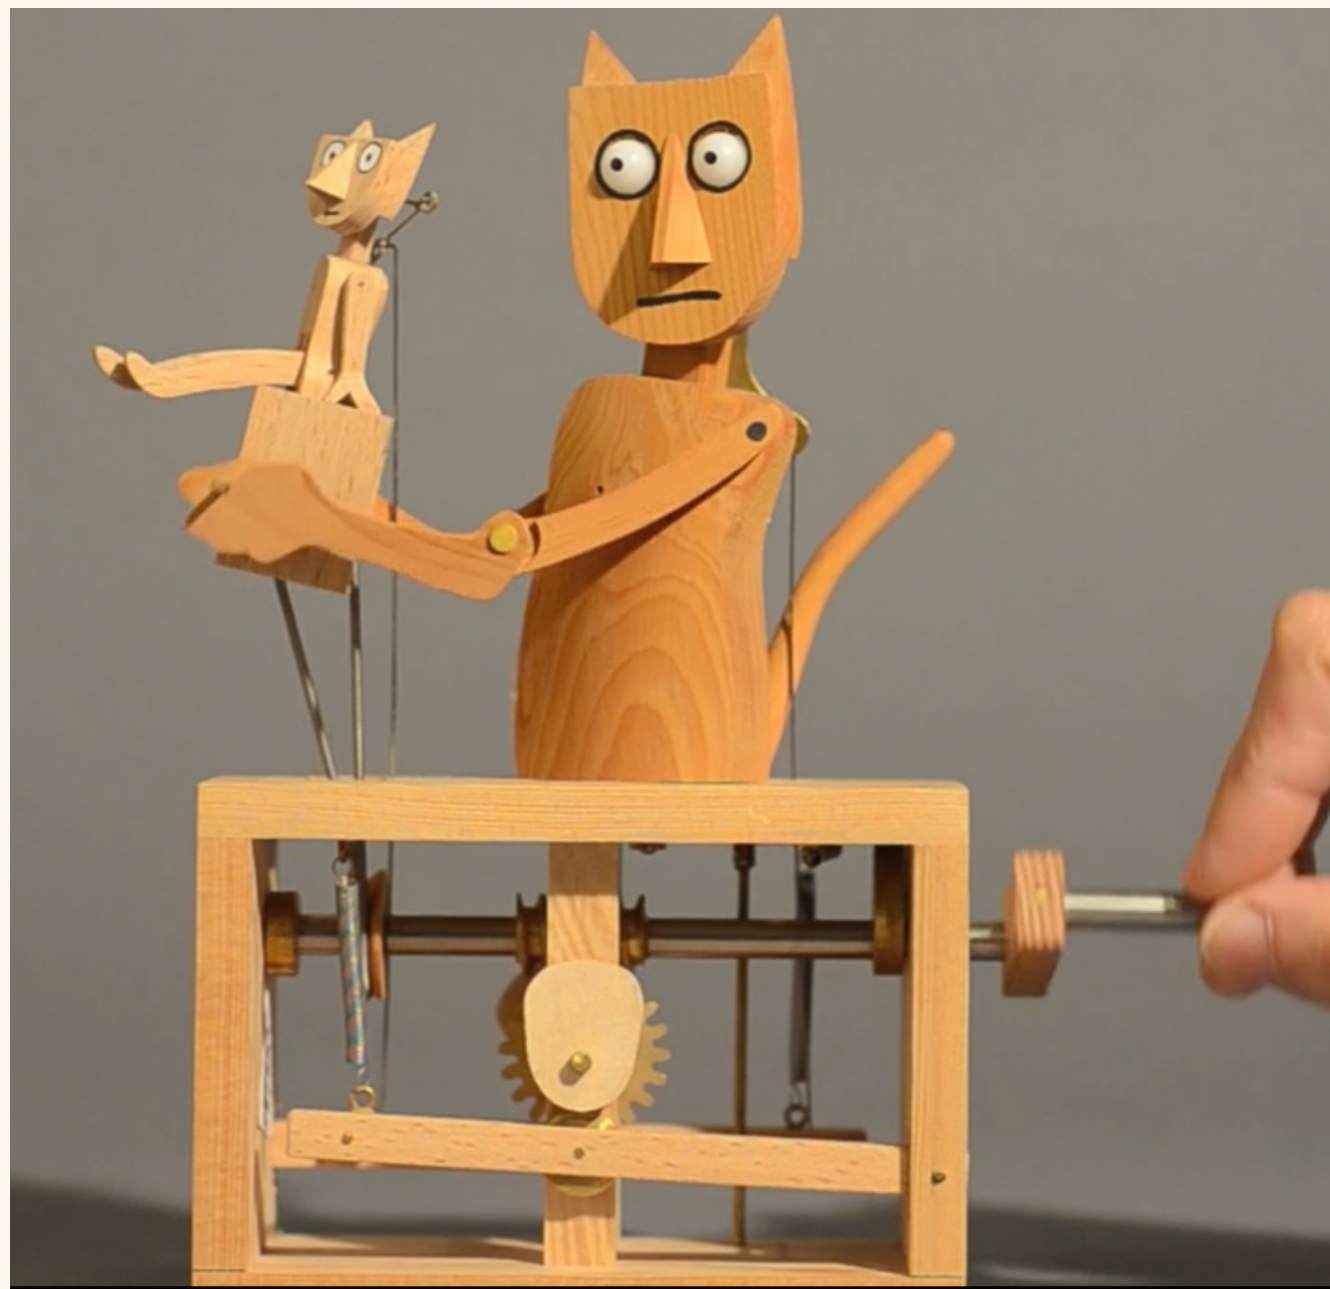

- Most of Paul Spooner's ideas come to him in the shower
- He gets out and grabs his book to draw designs
- Once satisfied, he goes into his shed
- He quickly prototypes his designs
- Paul prefers the instant gratification of seeing people laugh or get taken aback by his dark humor

WOODWORK

- The majority of his pieces are made from wood
- He gets wood for cheap from discarded furniture
- A mixture of curves and sharp edges for his figurines
- Picasso-like style and painting give them a very unique look
- Highly refined woodwork and painting
